Congratulations, Seniors!

I know your friends and family are incredibly proud of you for continuing to achieve your personal and academic goals. All of Team Kentucky celebrates you and your many accomplishments.

As Governor, I will always put education first, because it changes lives. As you begin planning for your future, I hope you will consider pursuing some form of education beyond high school. Whether that's a two-year or four-year college degree or a short-term training program, higher education can mean a lifetime of new opportunities for you. And there are more opportunities than ever coming our way, because Kentucky's economy is on fire!

To assist you in your planning, I am happy to present you with this helpful booklet entitled Getting In. You can use it to explore your options for higher education and your future career. Produced by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, Getting In has detailed information about Kentucky colleges and universities. It can also guide you and your parents through the college admissions and financial aid processes.

State agencies like KHEAA are here to help you as you pursue your dreams. For more resources and information on planning for higher education, visit kheaa.com.

Best wishes on your senior year, and know that Team Kentucky will always be in your corner.

Sincerely,

GETTING IN

Class of 2024

FRANKFORT
HIGH SCHOOL

Introduction

KHEAA has sent you this 49th edition of Getting In to help you through the admissions and financial aid processes. It's easy to use.

Chapter 1 provides general information and guidelines you'll need to begin planning for education or training after high school.

Chapter 2 is devoted to financial aid — money to help you pay for higher education. You'll find information on how to finance your college education, what kind of financial aid is available and how you can qualify. You'll also find useful tips and answers to frequently asked questions.

Chapter 3 contains information on colleges, universities and trade schools. Take the time to look over the different schools and see what each one has to offer.

Getting In is free and also available on www.kheaa.com. It can be reproduced for use by students, counselors, parents, financial aid officers and others at no cost. Information from Getting In is not to be presented as part of a for-pay presentation or sold in part or in its entirety by any person or organization. If you received any or all of this publication at a paid event or were charged for it, please let us know.
